New Products for the Fall and Holiday Season 2002

Mountain Bluebird Trail Monitoring Guide – MBBTMG - $4 ea.

Ellis Bird Farm biologist, Myrna Pearman, has teamed up with bluebird experts from across North America to bring you this up-to-date and comprehensive guide. Myrna draws on her own experience, as well as expertise and experiences of other Mountain Bluebird trail monitors, to:

- Summarize the unique natural history of the Mountain Bluebird
- Describe and illustrate nestbox designs that are suited for Mountain Bluebirds and other small native cavity nesters
- Outline tips on how to establish and maintain a successful Mountain Bluebird trail
- Provide guidelines on how to accurately age nestling Mountain Bluebirds and collect pertinent nestbox trail data
- List ways to deal with challenges and problems that might arise on a bluebird trail

Weather you're a seasoned trail operator or are thinking about putting out your first bluebird box, this booklet will be a welcome reference, guide and trail companion.

Bluebird Ceramic Ornaments

Each porcelain bluebird ornament is individually hand crafted, hand pinched and hand painted from the New England State of Massachusetts. Each bluebird has its own personal, whimsical, one of a kind personality. These American crafted collectibles are offered as a holiday tree ornament, tabletop ornament, birthday candleholders and salt & pepper shakers. These hand-pinched, hand-painted porcelain bluebirds range in size from 1.5 to 2 inches, with the salt & pepper shakers being a little larger.
